Annual Camp Bluegrass gets underway July 19-24

LEVELLAND – The six-day residential camp for bluegrass musicians known as Camp Bluegrass gets underway Sunday through July at South Plains College. More than 100 participants are expected to attend

The 23rd annual camp is designed to improve individual skills of banjo, guitar and mandolin players. Also, classes will be provided for fiddle, Dobro, bass and vocals. Classes are conducted in the Commercial Music building with nightly faculty performances in the Tom T. Hall Production Studio.

A special youth track is available for young musicians. SPC graduate and bass player Anne Luna will work with young players to form ensembles. The youth ensemble will perform in the Friday morning student concert.

For more information, contact Joe Carr, associate professor of music, at (806) 544-9703 or (806) 716-2493 or visit the web site www.campbluegrass.com.
