New class to focus on manners, etiquette

LEVELLAND – South Plains College will offer Launch 2009, a program designed to teach basic manners and rules of behavior to teens.

Launch 2009 will be held Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday (June 6) through June 20. The final class date will be from 7 to 10 p.m. on June 27 and will include a graduation dinner and dance.

The class will meet in the Sundown Room of the Student Center. The cost of the course is $50.

Janna Holt-Day, assistant professor of speech at SPC, will teach the course. Students will learn proper table manners, self defense, etiquette and dances. Additional subjects will focus on cell phone usage, how to conduct and act respectfully as well as role playing.

“A lot of teens will be going to weddings and parties and they may not know how to conduct themselves among adults,” Holt-Day said. “This course will give them the social tools they will need as they mature into adults.”

For more information, contact Holt-Day at (806) 716-2447.
