COURSE

DESCRIPTION: This course is an introduction to the role of business in modern society. It includes an overview of business operations, analysis of the specialized fields within the business organization, and development of a business vocabulary.

COURSE GOALS: Upon completion of this course, the student will:
Describe the scope of business enterprise in the nation and the world today.
Identify major business functions of accounting, economics, management, and marketing.
Describe the relationships of social responsibility, ethics, and law in business.
Define and apply business terminology.

TEXTBOOK: Solomon, M.R.; Poatsy, M.A.; & Martin, K. (2018). Better Business. (5th ed.), Boston, MA: Pearson.

ATTENDANCE

POLICY: Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student will be withdrawn from the course whenever absences become excessive or, in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met due to absences. Students are responsible for all class work covered during absences from class, even in cases in which they are able to satisfy the instructor that the absence was unavoidable. If you miss 2 weeks in a row without communicating with me, you will be dropped.
Equally important, if you accumulate 3 absences, YOU WILL BE DROPPED (unless extenuating circumstances prevail). Also, 3 tardies count as one absence.
Please refer to "Class Attendance" policy in the SPC General Catalog.

EXAM AND

GRADING POLICY: There will be four exams, plus the Final exam. There will be no make-up exams. All exams must be completed by Friday noon and if the exam is not taken during regular class time, there will be a 15 point reduction in the exam score. The Final exam is required and is comprehensive. Grading will be as follows:

4 exams @ 15%	= 60%	Grade standards:
Final exam	= 15%	A=90-100
Project	= 10%	B=80-89
Attendance	= 10%	C=70-79
Discussion/participation	= 5%	D=60-69, F=below 60

OTHER

INFORMATION: I reserve the right to change the course schedule to accommodate videos, class discussion, etc. Guidelines for Student Conduct:

1. Please turn off your cell phones upon entering the classroom.
2. Be respectful of others and contribute to classroom discussion without monopolizing. Give everyone a chance to participate.
3. Swearing in the classroom will not be tolerated. You may be asked to leave the room. Stretch your vocabulary by using proper language to express yourself.
4. Please review your Student Guide, especially sections on: Classroom Conduct, Cheating and Plagiarism, and Disruptions.

CAMPUS GUIDELINES CHILDREN ON CAMPUS

Many of the students attending classes at South Plains College are also parents who value the opportunity to participate in higher education. Sometimes students are faced with the decision of whether to remain at home with their children, bring children with them to class, or be absent from class. The following guidelines address concerns for the safety of children on campus and provide for an environment conducive to learning:

1. Students are not allowed to bring children to class and will be asked to leave in the interest of providing an environment conducive for all students enrolled in the class. Students are responsible for adherence to the attendance requirements set forth by the instructor in the course syllabus.
2. Children may not be left unattended. In order to provide for the safety of children on campus, parents or other guardians are responsible for supervising children while utilizing services or conducting business on campus.
3. Disruptive children will not be allowed to interfere with college business. Parents or other guardians are responsible for supervising and controlling the behavior of children they have brought on campus.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT STATEMENT

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) & Lubbock Center 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world, and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

GENERAL SAFETY ON CAMPUS

South Plains College recognizes the importance of safety on campus. The protection of persons and property is a responsibility which we all share. Personal safety begins with the individual. The following guidelines are intended to assist you in protecting yourself and to encourage practices that contribute to a safe environment for our campus community.

- * Never leave your personal property unsecured or unattended.
- * Look around and be aware of your surroundings when you enter and exit a building.
- * Whenever possible, avoid walking alone, particularly after dark. Walk to your vehicle with other class members or request that the Security Guard walk you to your car.
- * When approaching your vehicle, keep your keys in your hand; look under your car and in the back seat and floorboard. Lock the doors as soon as you are inside your car.

FOOD AND DRINK IN CLASSROOMS

It is the policy of South Plains College not to permit food or drink in the classrooms or laboratories.
